

Edgar Tomblin — Part 6

The middle of the three cottages (now Dukes Cottage) was occupied by a Job Walker, believed to be the brother of the Landlord of the Bluebell which was then a single storey thatched roof building which stood right up to the edge of pavement.

The village farms and owners:

Yew Tree Farm and Alpha Farm by Charles Walker.

Elms and Hill Farm by Sam Johnson.

Blaco Hill by George Johnson. Danes Hill by George Walker

Hill Farm (now No. 88) was next to the Wesleyan Chapel (now the Village Hall).

The new house looking up the street (Cherry Tree Farm) was tenanted by Fielding's, the youngest daughter to eventually be my mother. The farm was owned by Justen's, a local family of smallholders and relatives of many other families such as Cottam's, Bingham, Colgrave's, Holmes, Gilbert's.

The Fielding's were probably the largest farm in the village of around 100 acres, selling their produce in Sheffield.

Lingerers Walk in Lound and Lunch at the Bluebell - Friday 26th

Linghurst Lakes

Many of you will have noticed there has been some extensive maintenance work around Linghurst Lakes. This to widen the official foot paths and to clear away over hanging vegetation.

Later in the year, once the birds have nested, there will be further clearing to open up the lost lake side views in front of some of the benches and cutting back of self set trees. Please take notice and observe any of the warning signs of work taking place.

Why not take a pair of pruning secateurs on your Linghurst walk and help remove those long prickly brambles!

Thank you

Classic Cars In Lound

There will be a local classic car gathering at the Bluebell Inn, Lound, starting at 6.00pm on Friday 19th July.

Local classics very welcome. If you would like to eat at the pub on the night it would be important to book a table. Why not come along for a natter with like minded enthusiasts.

Post Office—Reminder

The post office comes to Lound Village Hall every Wednesday and is open from 1.00pm to 4.00pm. Not only to post letters or parcels but you can also take cash or cheques that need paying in to any high street bank.

Oil Syndicate

It's that time of year again when we are all starting to plan for cooler days ahead in autumn.

We intend to place an order for home oil deliveries to be made in Lound for the end of week commencing 8th July.

We therefore need your requirements for oil to be with us by Saturday 6th July at the very latest, so that we can obtain quotations from potential oil suppliers and get the best deal possible for Lound residents.

To place an order (minimum of 500 litres please), or for any questions about the process, please e-mail us at loundoilsyndicate@gmail.com, or telephone 01777 818089 (Rod Austin)

CPR Life Saving

IT'S NEVER TOO LATE TO LEARN LIFE SAVING CPR SKILLS

The next training session for ANY LOUND RESIDENT who wishes to learn CPR will be on Sunday September 1st at 3pm in the Village Hall.

Our resident experts Derek and Mandy Bainbridge will show us how and when to use our defibrillator and how to be a LIFE-SAVER.

Certificates awarded. Everyone welcome but please reserve your place by contacting Vivienne French Tel:- 818305 or, viviennefrench@talktalk.net

Parish Council

Vehicle Speed Sign-

You will have noticed a new active speed sign has suddenly appeared next to Alpha House!

Following the village petition re vehicles driving over the crossroads without stopping, the Parish Council requested Highways to install an interactive or 'stop' sign to warn all drivers coming down Daneshill Road of the crossroads ahead. In the wrong place, the new speed sign adjacent to Alphas House is to be removed. The matter is still being pursued...

Lound Phoenix Group

On June 18th Phoenix Group visited Polybell Organic Farming business which covers more than 5,000 acres just north of Gringley-On-The-Hill.

This business started organic vegetable production in 1997 and is now the largest organic producer in the UK supplying Waitrose, Sainsburys, Co-Op and M&S with broccoli, carrots and leeks.

This Company will be featured on BBC Sunday Countryfile programme in August. The Farm includes 3 SSSI (Sites of Special Scientific Interest) and is in the top 1% nationally for farmland birds and have over 185 different bird species recorded across the farm with many of these being endangered or at risk.

The evening ended with a meal at The Blacksmith's in Everton.

The next Lound Phoenix Group meeting will be Tuesday 16th July at Manor

Farm, 61 Town Street.

Please meet at 7.00pm to discuss plans for the meetings for the next year. Bring your drinks and refreshments to share. Note earlier time!

Lound Lingers

Midsummer Walk and Bluebell Lunch

Another summer walk will be on Friday July 26th. We meet at 10.45am at the Bluebell. This will be in and around Lound, weather permitting, followed by lunch at the Bluebell at about 12.30pm.

Important

Those wishing to participate in the walk and lunch, or lunch only, please contact Gee White by Sunday 21st latest at Willow Cottage, 65 Town Street, to book your place. You will be given a menu to pre-order and pre-pay for your choice.

Plastic Plant Pots

We have all heard about the world's plastic waste problem... Do you have too many plastic plant pots collecting dust in your shed?

Well, now you can recycle them at B&Q in Worksop. If you are not going that way in the near future, Gee is happy to store them at Willow Cottage, 65 Town Street.
