Election agent

- Responsible for the proper management of your election campaign; particularly its financial management.
- Notification of appointment must reach the RO by 4pm – 4th April 2023. Form is included in nomination pack.
- You will become your own agent by default if none is appointed.
- If you act as your own agent and do not provide an office address your home address will be published on the notice of election agents, even if you have requested for this information to be withheld from the SOPN and ballot paper

Other agents

- Other agents can be appointed to attend postal vote openings, polling stations and the count on your behalf:
  - You must give notice in writing of any people appointed as polling and counting agents by 26th April 2023.
  - The appointment of postal voting agents attending a particular opening session must be made before the start of the session. We will give 48 hours' notice. Sessions will start from 10am on 24th April (further information will be in your candidate information packs)

Access to electoral register/absent voting lists

- Access by candidates – once you officially become a candidate:
  - earliest, on 27th March 2023 if you, or others declared yourself a candidate
  - once you or others have declared yourself a candidate after this date / date you submit your nomination papers
- Make written request to the ERO – forms are available from the office / are included in your nomination pack.
- Registered political parties are entitled to receive a copy of the full electoral register at any time.

Access to electoral register /
absent voting
lists

- Only use data for permitted purposes
  - to complete the nomination form
  - to help you campaign
  - to check that donations/loans are permissible

- Registration (1)
- As a candidate you are uniquely placed to encourage people to register to vote.
  - You should encourage people to register as soon as possible.
  - The deadline for applying for the election is 17th April 2023.
  - Individuals can apply to register online at <https://www.gov.uk/register-to-vote>. It only takes a few minutes.

Registration (2)

- When discussing registering to vote with individuals, you will need to make them aware that they will need to provide:
  - their National Insurance number
  - date of birth and address
- People who do not have / cannot retrieve their National Insurance number can still register, but they may need to provide further information. If so, they will be contacted by the ERO.

Absent voting

- When talking to electors about voting by post or proxy, you should make them aware of the relevant deadlines and advise them to apply early.
- If you are encouraging people who don't have a postal (or proxy) vote to apply for one, make sure you explain that they will only qualify for one in time for the elections if they are (or will be) registered in time to vote at the elections.
- If an elector is away on polling day and applying for a postal vote please ask them to contact the Elections Office to check if they will receive it in time.

Voter Identification

- Voters in this election will need to provide a form of accepted photographic ID if they wish to vote in person at a polling station.
- Voters will be able to present out of date photographic ID so long as the photograph is still a good likeness.
- If a voter fails to present a form of accepted photographic ID they will not be issued with a ballot paper.
- This includes those who act as a proxy for another person.

Accepted forms of Voter ID

- Voters should be encouraged to check whether they have one of the forms of accepted photographic ID well in advance of the election
- If a voter does not have an accepted form of photographic ID, they can apply for a Voter Authority Certificate either online <https://www.gov.uk/apply-for-photo-id-voter-authority-certificate> or using a paper application form.
- Electors who are registered anonymously must have an Elector's Document to vote in person
- Any applications must be received by the ERO by 5pm on the 6th working day before poll.

Campaigning dos and don'ts

- Do use imprints on all your campaign material, including websites.
- Do comply with planning rules relating to advertising hoardings and large banners.
- Do make sure outdoor posters are removed 2 weeks after the election.
- Do not produce material that looks like a poll card.
- Do not pay people to display your adverts (unless they display adverts as part of their normal business).

Code of conduct for campaigners (1)

- Campaigners are an essential element of a healthy democracy, but their activities should not bring into question the integrity of the electoral process.
- Electoral registration and absent vote applications:
  - Ensure forms fully conform to the requirements of electoral law
  - Include the ERO's address for the return of forms
  - Ensure unaltered applications are sent to ERO within two working days.
  - Make sure electors understand implications of applying for an absent vote.
  - Do not encourage postal ballot pack redirection.
  - Do not encourage electors to appoint a campaigner as proxy.
- Voter Authority Certificate Applications:
  - Should not handle paper based Voter Authority Certificate applications and should encourage electors to send them directly to the ERO

Code of conduct for campaigners (2)

- Postal ballot packs:
  - Never touch a postal ballot paper
  - Never observe electors completing their postal vote.
  - Never handle or take any completed ballot paper or postal ballot pack from voters
- Campaigning outside polling stations:
  - You are allowed to put your messages to voters on polling day, including public spaces outside polling places.
  - Keep access to polling places and the pavements around polling places clear to allow voters to enter.

Polling day

- Polling stations open from 7am to 10pm
- Office open 6.30am to 10.00pm for queries or problems relating to the administration of the election
  - for queries relating to election finance issues, contact the Electoral Commission (contact details shown later)
- Voters in the polling station or in a queue outside the polling station at 10 pm can apply for a ballot paper
- Voters in this election will need to present photographic ID in the polling station
- Postal votes – can be handed into polling stations or delivered to the elections office until 10pm.
- A person in a queue at a polling station at 10pm waiting to hand in a postal vote can do so after 10pm.

Counting of votes

- The count will be held in:
  - North Notts Arena, Eastgate, Worksop
- Count centre will open to candidates agents from 9.30pm
- Candidates, election agents, counting agents and one other person appointed by the candidate are entitled to attend.
  - There will be a limit to the number of counting agents, the number will be advised after the close of nominations

Spending issues

Candidate spending

- Defined as certain expenses ‘used for the purposes of the candidate’s election’ during the regulated period.
- Responsibility of election agent
- Limit on expenses:
  - £806 + 7 pence per elector in ward/division on register in force on 27th March 2023 (last date for publication of the notice of election)
  - reduced for joint candidates
- Must get and keep receipts (over £20)

The Electoral Commission

Candidates' spending returns

- Returns due 35 calendar days after result of election for District and 28 calendar days for Parish
- Returns made public by Returning Officer
- Sample of returns may be reviewed by the Electoral Commission
- Failure to submit a spending return is a criminal offence enforceable by police
- No spending will be reimbursed
- A nil return still needs to be submitted
