Lound Lingerers

Our next walk on Friday August 18th will be in the cool shade of the mighty oaks of Sherwood Forest.

The circular route takes about an hour and we will set off from Willow Cottage at 10.45 am.

Please let Gee know by Tuesday 15th on Tel: 01777 818792 if you would like to come so that transport can be organised and a table booked for a pub lunch. Everyone welcome!

Did you know?

Sherwood is a royal forest. Its peculiar fame arises from its historic association with the legend of Robin Hood.

The area has been wooded since the end of the Last Glacial Period. Today, Sherwood Forest National Nature Reserve encompasses 424.75 hectares (1,049.6 acres), surrounding the village of Edwinstowe and Thoresby Hall Estate. It is a remnant of an older and much larger royal hunting forest, which derived its name from its status as the shire (or sher) wood of Nottinghamshire, which extended into several neighbouring counties, bordered on the west by the River Erewash and the Forest of East Derbyshire.
