Lound Village Calendar

Last chance for entries!

The photograph competition closes at the end of August! Your photos need to be landscape and not have any people in them. Send to Loundvillage@gmail.com and include your name and the month they were taken.

The shortlist of entries will be on display in the Village Hall Saturday 19th September, 10:00am to 12:30am for you to come to cast your vote to choose the picture for each month. Come along and admire the amazing photos, and catch up with the neighbours over tasty cake and a cup of tea!

Hemlock—beware!

This is a photo of Hemlock, a very poisonous plant which is growing everywhere in hedgerows just now. It looks like cow parsley (which is now more or less over) but lighter green and has these purple speckles on the stems. There is some on Neatholme Lane about 50/100yds below the gate. Every part of it is poisonous.

>Dogs on the Playing Field

Over recent weeks there have been a number of reports of dogs on the playing field. This area is a public space managed by the Parish Council. It has a Public Spaces Protection Order prohibiting dogs from access.

Over the coming weeks you will see improved signage to make this restriction more obvious, and explain the possible consequences of ignoring it.

Members of the public are advised not to challenge anyone who has a dog there, but rather collect evidence (e.g. photo of a car number plate, dog and people) and send it to the Parish Clerk via email clerk@lound-pc.gov.uk.

This information will then be collated and reported to Bassetlaw District Council who can issue a Fixed Penalty Notice of £100 to offenders.

The lottery helps raise money to maintain your village hall, used for many events which benefit both children and adults.

Phoenix Group

In June a group of village ladies had a very pleasant evening enjoying a glass of wine and learning how to play Croquet at Blaco Hill farm. Things occasionally got challenging but everyone actually had a good laugh.

The July meeting concentrates on preparing a new programme of events, speakers and demonstrations so ideas, suggestions and inspiration are vital. We will meet in the garden at Manor Farm, thanks to Viv French, at 7pm on Wednesday 8 July. Please bring a plate of food to share with others and your own drink and suggestions for the forthcoming programme.
